Graded Written Paper

Princeton requires you to submit a graded written paper as part of your application. You may submit this material now or any time before the application deadline (November 1 for SCEA and January 1 for Regular Decision). If you choose not to include the required paper at this time, you may mail, e-mail or upload your paper through the applicant portal. Detailed instructions for our graded paper requirement can be found on the ‘How To Apply’ section of our Admission Website.

Do you wish to submit a graded written paper at this time?  Yes  No

Essay: Your Voice

In addition to the essay you have written for the Coalition Application, please write an essay of about 500 words (no more than 650 words and no fewer than 250 words). Using one of the themes below as a starting point, write about a person, event or experience that helped you define one of your values or in some way changed how you approach the world. Please do not repeat, in full or in part, the essay you wrote for the Coalition Application.

- Tell us about a person who has influenced you in a significant way.
  - “One of the great challenges of our time is that the disparities we face today have more complex causes and point less straightforwardly to solutions.”*
Omar Wasow, assistant professor of politics, Princeton University.
This quote is taken from Professor Wasow’s January 2014 speech at the Martin Luther King Day celebration at Princeton University.
  - “Culture is what presents us with the kinds of valuable things that can fill a life. And insofar as we can recognize the value in those things and make them part of our lives, our lives are meaningful.”*
Gideon Rosen, Stuart Professor of Philosophy and chair, Department of Philosophy, Princeton University.
  - Using a favorite quotation from an essay or book you have read in the last three years as a starting point, tell us about an event or experience that helped you define one of your values or changed how you approach the world. Please write the quotation, title and author at the beginning of your essay.

Engineering Essay

If you are interested in pursuing a B.S.E. (Bachelor of Science in Engineering) degree, please write a 300-500 word essay describing why you are interested in studying engineering, any experiences in or exposure to engineering you have had, and how you think the programs in engineering offered at Princeton suit your particular interests.
